Sweden suspends CST financing; 390, 11-95, p. 11.
Market traders occupy the streets; 390, 11-95, p. 11.
Germany condones debt; 391, 12-95, p. 10.
Russians propose taking over Nicaraguan geothermal project; 391, 12-95, p. 10.
European representative reports on foreign aid; 391, 12-95, p. 10.
Rice harvest decimated; 391, 12-95, p. 11.
Another hike in milk prices; 391, 12-95, p. 11.
Land threatened: A new sword of Damocles; 391, 12-95, p. 14.

Education

21,000 high school graduates; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
1995 school year begins: On strike again; 383, 3-95, p. 9.
Student conflict in the UNAN; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
Movement to withhold payment in public schools; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
Police repress striking teachers; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Teachers' strike ends; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
Belli takes on the super-heroes; 386, 7-95, p. 28.
Fees causing school drop-outs; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
School costs; 387, 8-95, p. 28.
Parents start proceedings against education minister; 389, 10-95, p. 9.
Nuns' brand of Communism; 389, 10-95, p. 29.
Universities march again for 6%; 390, 11-95, p. 11.
1996 school year to begin early; 391, 12-95, p. 11.
Demonstration ends in bloody conflict: Universities at war; 391, 12-95, p. 17.

From the editor

1995 kicks off with FSLN resignations: Different parties with different directions; 381, 1-95, p. 3.
Confrontations, divisions and disease; 382, 2-95, p. 3.
The country with two constitutions: What a mess!; 383, 3-95, p. 3.
The property issue: A double-edged sword; 384, 5-95, p. 3.
The price of easy money; 385, 6-95, p. 3.
A tenuous agreement; 385, 7-95, p. 3.
Election campaign heating up: Presidential candidates, the list grows; 387, 8-95, p. 3.
People of America: Working together for a new future; 388, 9-95, p. 3.
Nicaraguan Community Movement: Defending its autonomy; 389, 10-95, p. 3.
Sick to death; 390, 11-95, p. 3.
Days of repression; 391, 12-95, p. 3.

Grassroots movements

Detained for supporting squatters; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Supposed author of Zapatera occupation freed; 382, 2-95, p. 10.
Cooperative members evicted with police help; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
The Nicaraguan Community Movement: An anthill of activity; 389, 10-95, p. 17.
MCN: Coming of age; 389, 10-95, p. 18. Nicaraguan Community Movement.
The Community Movement's autonomy: Our most precious possession; 389, 10-95, p. 20. Nicaraguan Community Movement.
Grassroots opinions; 389, 10-95, p. 23. Nicaraguan Community Movement.
Gang warfare; 390, 11-95, p. 24.

Health

AIDS on the increase in Managua; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Health center abortion probe; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
Health workers win raise; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
Public health system: Disease strikes harder as budget shrinks; 382, 2-95, p. 17.
The current struggle over health care: Cut down to the bone; 382, 2-95, p. 18.
Hospital patients: Charting the misery; 382, 2-95, p. 20.
Children with cancer and kidney diseases: Laid low by government indifference; 382, 2-95, p. 21.
Health workers' salaries: Insult to injury; 382, 2-95, p. 22.
No more AID funds for Ixchen; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
Health ministry announces new fees; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
Armed groups sabotage immunization campaign; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
More children born with myelomeningocele; 386, 7-95, p. 9.
Chagas disease attacks Somoto; 386, 7-95, p. 9.
A vaccine against tetanus and pregnancy?; 386, 7-95, p. 29.
Church backs anti-vaccine doctor; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
Health scare... in Managua hospital; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
The dangers of "pigging out"; 387, 8-95, p. 28.
Vaccines vindicated; 387, 8-95, p. 29.
Wave of illnesses; 389, 10-95, p. 9.
Unemployment, malaria, dengue.. and now leptospirosis: The Achuapa plague; 390, 11-95, p. 12.
Alarming increase in suicides: Saying goodbye to life; 390, 11-95, p. 22.
Cuba donates rat poison; 391, 12-95, p. 11.

Human rights

The greatest violators; 381, 1-95, p. 29.
Nicaraguans in Costa Rica persecuted and deported: Costa Ricans "should be ashamed"; 383, 3-95, p. 14.
La Marañosa considered punishable crime; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Canidh contradicts police version; 386, 7-95, p. 8.
Alarming rise in sexual offenses; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
No more prisoners; 387, 8-95, p. 29.
Police fined over prostitutes; 390, 11-95, p. 24.

International

Argentina

Gay culture gaining ground; 381, 1-95, p. 30.
Women are not guilty; 390, 11-95, p. 27.
Marginalized from society; 391, 12-95, p. 24.
Argentine women: Spreading the word; 391, 11-95, p. 28.

Bolivia

Chagas disease out of control; 388, 9-95, p. 30.
Curfew for minors; 390, 11-95, p. 27.

Brazil

President a former terrorist; 381, 1-95, p. 31.
Decriminalization debate; 383, 3-95, p. 30.
A clean needle can save a life; 385, 6-95, p. 29.
Rural children exploited; 386, 7-95, p. 31.

Chile

Ecologists and businessmen lock horns; 387, 8-95, p. 31.
Young girls victims of sexual violence; 390, 11-95, p. 27.

Colombia

From paramilitaries to surveillance cooperatives; 382, 2-95, p. 31.

Costa Rica

The other side of tourism; 381, 1-95, p. 30.
Indigenous chief crowned; 385, 6-95, p. 29.
AIDS law; 390, 11-95, p. 26.

Cuba

Still prioritizing social services; 381, 1-95, p. 31.
Women back in the kitchen; 383, 3-95, p. 31.
Through the looking glass; 388, 9-95, p. 28.
The spread of Chinese medicine; 388, 9-95, p. 31.

Ecuador

Taking on Texaco; 390, 11-95, p. 26.

El Salvador

Following Argentina's example; 386, 7-95, p. 30.
Community radio: Something new on the air; 388, 9-95, p. 25.

Guatemala

Human rights violations continue; 385, 6-95, p. 30.
Army cleaning up its image; 387, 8-95, p. 30.
Fighting electoral indifference; 389, 10-95, p. 31.

Honduras

Women: time to speak; 382, 2-95, p. 30.

Mexico

Indigenous people ask for economic asylum; 383, 3-95, p. 30.
Uprooted people and trees: consequence of war; 384, 5-95, p. 30.

Paraguay

A different angle on the news; 391, 12-95, p. 25.

Peru

One step forward... and two steps backward; 389, 10-95, p. 30.
Nightmare on the roads; 391, 12-95, p. 24.

Regional

Abortion as birth control; 382, 2-95, p. 30.
Governments show little interest in "indigenous decade"; 383, 3-95, p. 31.
Heavy addiction; 384, 5-95, p. 30.
Border disputes: colonialism's legacy still stirs up trouble; 385, 6-95, p. 28.
Celam declares war on women's conference; 386, 7-95, p. 30.
The left in the cities; 389, 10-95, p. 30.

Surinam

Cimarron-indigenous alliance; 387, 8-95, p. 30.

Venezuela

Coup d'état, inch by inch; 384, 5-95, p. 31.
A wife's last name; 384, 5-95, p. 31.
Fighting for food; 388, 9-95, p. 30.

Interview

FSLN deputy Omar Cabezas Lacayo: Aiming to reduce the political maneuvering; 381, 1-95, p. 8.
Dora María Téllez: Inevitable resignation; 382, 2-95, p. 7.
Nathán Sevilla, leader of the FSLN representatives in parliament: No monolithic unity; 382, 2-95, p. 8.
Ariel Bucardo, UNAG executive council member: Fighting to democratize the economy and property; 386, 7-95, p. 26.
Tomás Borge Martínez, FSLN national directorate member: Nicaragua and the FSLN... 16 years later; 387, 8-95, p. 25.
Gilberto López, from Costa Rica's Sovereignty Group: Warning the continent; 388, 9-95, p. 21. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
José Arturo Luna, Chiapas Democratic Assembly: Finding positive answers and explanations; 388, 9-95, p. 22. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
Enrique Picado: The Community Movement's autonomy, our most precious possession; 389, 10-95, p. 20. Nicaraguan Community Movement.
Former president Daniel Ortega: "A born leader"; 391, 12-95, p. 8.

Labor movement

Workers seize their own company; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Workers march against the government; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Police repress striking teachers; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Telcor: Another round against privatization; 384, 5-95, p. 14.
Worker-owned businesses: No gift horse; 384, 5-95, p. 17.

The new worker-owners: Reaping a whirlwind?; 384, 5-95, p. 18.
The national concrete industry: Shattered unity; 384, 5-95, p. 19.
Roberto González, from the transport workers' union: Hidden interests; 384, 5-95, p. 21.
La Fosforera: A burning issue; 384, 5-95, p. 22.
Teachers' strike ends; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
National strike; 385, 6-95, p. 8.
Northern transport strike; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
"La Fosforera" deal struck; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
Worker-owners demand to see accounts; 389, 10-95, p. 8.
Power struggle in the CST: Family feud; 391, 12-95, p. 13.

Media

Journalist accuses editor of sexual harassment; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Liberty of sexual harassment; 382, 2-95, p. 29.
Crisis threatens transmission of Sunday mass; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Journalists in Nicaragua: Behind the headlines; 387, 8-95, p. 17.
Among journalists: Opening up communication; 387, 8-95, p. 18.
Media expansion; 387, 8-95, p. 21.
Róger Solórzano, from the National Journalists' Syndicate: Nobody gets special treatment; 387, 8-95, p. 22.
Business is business; 391, 12-95, p. 23.

Opinion corner

Ready to talk. By Tomás Borge; 381, 1-95, p. 32.
Renovation from within, and within us. By Orlando Núñez; 382, 2-95, p. 32.
What a shame, Ernesto! By Carlos Rigby; 383, 3-95, p. 32.
The president's strategy. By Carlos F. Chamorro; 384, 5-95, p. 32.
Victory awaits us! By Sergio Ramírez M.; 385, 6-95, p. 32.
Why Paris was not what it seemed. By Oscar Neira Cuadra; 386, 7-95, p. 32.
New ways of fighting. By Vilma Núñez; 387, 8-95, p. 32.
Education is the key. By Mariano Fialios; 388, 9-95, p. 32.
A sour taste....By Tomás Borge; 389, 10-95, p. 32.
Politics and gender. By Guillermo Cortés Domínguez; 390, 11-95, p. 32.
The final curtain; 391, 12-95, p. 32.

Politics

Cardinal Obando prays for Daniel Ortega; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Bomb thrown at the Cuban embassy; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Liberals celebrate unity; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Workers march against the government; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
1994 year in review; 381, 1-95, p. 17.
Shifting political terrain; 381, 1-95, p. 18. 1994 year in review.
Liberal unity proving difficult; 382, 2-95, p. 10.
"Depoliticizing" Sandino; 382, 2-95, p. 28.
Constitutional reform process paralyzes judicial branch: Legal chaos; 383, 3-95, p. 4.
Mayors oppose constitutional reforms; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
Waslala campesina women seek protection; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
New armed group; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
War victims protest Bush's visit; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
An expensive image; 383, 3-95, p. 29.
Executive and legislative powers: Tangled in their own web; 384, 5-95, p. 4.
Demanding "their properties" back: The return of the Somozas; 384, 5-95, p. 6.
DEA should obey Nicaraguan laws; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Armed groups sabotage immunization campaign; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Managua mayor's office threatens potters; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Drugs, the Nicaraguan security forces and the DEA: What's really at stake?; 385, 6-95, p. 17.
Pre-electoral political panorama; 385, 6-95, p. 4.
After five years in office; 385, 6-95, p. 8.
Campesinos in Pancasán: Making the laws work for them; 385, 6-95, p. 12.
Government and parliament attempt to solve institutional crisis: Agreeing to disagree; 386, 7-95, p. 4.
Constitutional reforms: Finally in force, but...; 387, 8-95, p. 4.
Liberals present candidates: Leaders facing off; 387, 8-95, p. 10.
Private industry without presidential favorite; 387, 8-95, p. 12.
Airrecú-Jumusa: Storm in a teacup; 387, 8-95, p. 14.
Executive and legislative branches face off again: Another confrontation looms; 388, 9-95, p. 4.
Pre-electoral warm-up: Jockeying for position; 389, 10-95, p. 4.
Threats from Arnoldo Alemán; 389, 10-95, p. 8.
Patriotic fervor; 389, 10-95, p. 28.
Nicaragua's new vice-president: Electoral alliances taking shape; 390, 11-95, p. 4.
Garbage privatization illegal?; 390, 11-95, p. 11.
Timid assertion of ownership; 390, 11-95, p. 11.
Armed groups threaten indigenous people; 391, 12-95, p. 10.
Abandoning the National Project; 391, 12-95, p. 10.
New comptroller by mid-December; 391, 12-95, p. 10.
Demanding due payment; 391, 12-95, p. 22.

Armed forces/Police

New army chief named; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
The greatest violators; 381, 1-95, p. 29.
Cooperative members evicted with police help; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
New armed group; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
Army wraps up coffee harvest protection; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Police repress striking teachers; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Arrests in the Atlantic; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
La Marañosa case considered punishable crime; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Armed forces still necessary; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
Nicaragua will buy Israeli coast guard ships; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
No short people need apply; 385, 6-95, p. 26.
Cenidh contradicts police version; 386, 7-95, p. 8.
Police action against rapists: Into their own hands; 386, 7-95, p. 25.
Commission to investigate church bombings; 387, 8-95, p. 12.
Army mine-clearing operation; 387, 8-95, p. 12.
Five campesinos killed; 387, 8-95, p. 12.
No more prisoners; 387, 8-95, p. 29.
Bombs and threats: Terrorist games; 388, 9-95, p. 7.
Electoral council kidnapping; 389, 10-95, p. 8.
Church bombings continue; 389, 10-95, p. 8.
Armed groups continue killing; 390, 11-95, p. 10.
Green light for military attachés; 390, 11-95, p. 10.
National Police spokesperson replaced; 390, 11-95, p. 10.
First rural Women's Police Station: The Mulukukú policewomen; 390, 11-95, p. 17.
Police fined over prostitutes; 390, 11-95, p. 24.
Bankrupt police force; 391, 12-95, p. 10.
High security measures for papal visit; 391, 12-95, p. 11.

Government

Nicaraguan-Basque deported in 1992 detained again; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Government announces closure of embassies; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Government completes sale of airline; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Former minister counterattacks; 382, 2-95, p. 10.
Nicaraguan government in the dock; 382, 2-95, p. 10.
Health centers abortion probe; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
Comptroller investigates corruption in Marena; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
No more AID funds for Ixchen; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
Government announces national census; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
Border to be clearly defined; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
US threatens to cut off aid; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Government announces "attractive" layoffs; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Government denies property rights to 2,000 families; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Nicaragua will buy Israeli coast guard ships; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
Salmerón may leave Colombia; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
Government makes more promises; 386, 7-95, p. 8.
No passports in Nicaragua; 386, 7-95, p. 28.
US aid contingent on property returns; 388, 9-95, p. 10.
Government to compensate Somocistas; 388, 9-95, p. 10.
Government launches cooperatives bill; 389, 10-95, p. 9.

National Assembly/Laws

Uproar over parliamentary presidency: Different sauces for the goose and the gander; 381, 1-95, p. 6.
FSLN deputy Omar Cabezas Lacayo: Aiming to reduce the political maneuvering; 381, 1-95, p. 8.
Constitutional reforms pass second round: Power struggle in sight; 382, 2-95, p. 4.
Parliament approves asylum amendment; 382, 2-95, p. 10.
The reformed articles: To be or not to be?; 383, 3-95, p. 6.
Parties support absentee ballot; 388, 9-95, p. 10.
New electoral law passed; 390, 11-95, p. 10.
1996 national budget under discussion; 390, 11-95, p. 11.
Absentee voting; 391, 12-95, p. 23.

Sandinista movement

Sergio Ramírez leaves FSLN: Separation time; 381, 1-95, p. 4.
FSLN deputy Omar Cabezas Lacayo: Aiming to reduce the political maneuvering; 381, 1-95, p. 8.
Sandinista Assembly calls for unity; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Campesino leader urges "order"; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Sergio Ramírez meets with Cardinal Obando; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Finally, two Sandinista parties: Going separate ways; 382, 2-95, p. 5.
Dora María Téllez: Inevitable resignation; 382, 2-95, p. 7.
Nathán Sevilla, leader of the FSLN representatives in parliament: No monolithic unity; 382, 2-95, p. 8.
61 years after Sandino's assassination: Divided homage; 383, 3-95, p. 8.
FSLN autonomy in South Caribbean under discussion; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
FSLN honors mayor of Arbucies; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
The FSLN's economic proposal: A viable alternative?; 384, 5-95, p. 11.
Ex-president has unpaid bills, too; 384, 5-95, p. 28.
Calling for national dialogue; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
Sandinista Renovation Movement forms their own party: New directions in the Sandinista movement; 386, 7-95, p. 6.
Celebrating July 19; 387, 8-95, p. 11.
Tomás Borge Martínez, FSLN national directorate member: Nicaragua and the FSLN... 16 years later; 387, 8-95, p. 25.
The FSLN at the 16th anniversary: Setting a new course; 388, 9-95, p. 5.
MRS selects presidential candidate; 388, 9-95, p. 10.
Sergio Ramírez to give his house back; 388, 9-95, p. 10.
With the FSLN national directorate: Close encounters; 388, 9-95, p. 19. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
Radio Ya director springs surprise; 389, 10-95, p. 8.
The Revolutionary Front members today: Swords into plowshares; 389, 10-95, p. 11.
The Community Movement's autonomy: Our most precious possession; 389, 10-95, p. 20. Interview with Enrique Picado, Nicaraguan Community Movement.

Former president Daniel Ortega is FSLN presidential precandidate: Once more unto the breach; 391, 12-95, p. 7.
Power struggle in the CST: Family feud; 391, 12-95, p. 13.

■ Property/Privatization

Government completes sale of airline; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Workers seize their own company; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
COSEP rejects property bill; 382, 2-95, p. 10.
Landowner's house bombed; 382, 2-95, p. 10.
Cooperative members evicted with police help; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
Shark attacks children and angels; 383, 3-95, p. 29.
Demanding "their properties" back: The return of the Somozas; 384, 5-95, p. 6.
Businesspeople: Privatization is a white elephant; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Government denies property rights to 2,000 families; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Telcor: Another round against privatization; 384, 5-95, p. 14.
Worker-owned businesses: No gift horse; 384, 5-95, p. 17.
The new worker-owners: Reaping a whirlwind?; 384, 5-95, p. 18.
The national concrete industry: Shattered unity; 384, 5-95, p. 19.
Roberto González, from the transport workers' union: Hidden interests; 384, 5-95, p. 21.
La Fosforera: A burning issue; 384, 5-95, p. 22.
Bonanza on the verge of privatization: No glitter in the mines; 384, 5-95, p. 26.
Property issue still inching along; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
National strike; 385, 6-95, p. 8.
Number 1 on Channel 2 is... Sacasa; 385, 6-95, p. 26.
Campesinos demand land titles; 386, 7-95, p. 8.
Ariel Bucardo, UNAG executive council member: Fighting to democratize the economy and property; 386, 7-95, p. 26.
Properties in conflict: First tentative agreements; 387, 8-95, p. 7.
45 days more for the OOT; 387, 8-95, p. 12.
Property bill to be introduced; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
"La Fosforera" deal struck; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
US aid contingent on property returns; 388, 9-95, p. 10.
Government seizes and auctions off workers' business; 388, 9-95, p. 11.
Worker-owners demand to see accounts; 389, 10-95, p. 8.
First articles of the Property Law approved: The ball starts rolling; 390, 11-95, p. 7.
Telcor to be privatized; 390, 11-95, p. 10.
Executive branch and legislature vote to sell Telcor: Up for grabs; 391, 12-95, p. 4.

■ Religion

Cardinal Obando prays for Daniel Ortega; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
Sergio Ramírez meets with Cardinal Obando; 381, 1-95, p. 10.
A question of faith; 383, 3-95, p. 28.
Crisis threatens transmission of Sunday mass; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
A vaccine against tetanus and pregnancy?; 386, 7-95, p. 29.
Commission to investigate church bombings; 387, 8-95, p. 12.
Church backs anti-vaccine doctor; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
Bombs and threats: Terrorist games; 388, 9-95, p. 7.
Cardinal Obando y Bravo receives medal; 391, 12-95, p. 11.

■ Social themes

Imperceptible tremor on Christmas Eve; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Nicas look at '95: Cataclysmic prophecies, modest hopes; 381, 1-95, p. 15.
Cruel jokes; 381, 1-95, p. 28.
A relatively peaceful Christmas; 381, 1-95, p. 28.
Goodbye to the ruins; 381, 1-95, p. 29.
Kidnapped child found, trafficking rumors abound; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
Panic in the embassy; 382, 2-95, p. 28.
War victims protest Bush's visit; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
Power cuts return; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
Nicaraguans in Costa Rica persecuted and deported: Costa Ricans "should be ashamed"; 383, 3-95, p. 14.
Fear of rock; 383, 3-95, p. 28.
Border to be clearly defined; 384, 5-95, p. 8.
Lights out for late bill payers in Estelí; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Noise victims' organization formed; 384, 5-95, p. 9.
Ex-president has unpaid bills, too; 384, 5-95, p. 28.
War on wheels; 384, 5-95, p. 28.
Pyrrhic joy; 384, 5-95, p. 29.
The ministers' beach; 384, 5-95, p. 29.
Passenger bus attacked; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
Saimerón may leave Colombia; 385, 6-95, p. 7.
Nicaraguans in US still uncertain; 385, 6-95, p. 8.
Young offenders: Too much for such small shoulders; 385, 6-95, p. 14.
Caught at their own game; 385, 6-95, p. 27.
Crystal balls clash; 385, 6-95, p. 27.
Cerro Negro volcano active again; 386, 7-95, p. 9.
No passports in Nicaragua; 386, 7-95, p. 28.
Protesting... for the sake of it; 386, 7-95, p. 29.
Urban bus transfer suspended; 387, 8-95, p. 12.
Alarming rise in sexual offenses; 387, 8-95, p. 13.
Vehicles impounded for tax evasion; 388, 9-95, p. 11.
Unconfirmed disappearances in Chinandega; 388, 9-95, p. 11.
Heavy rains cause massive flooding; 388, 9-95, p. 11.
Taxi-bombs on the loose; 388, 9-95, p. 14.
Making asses of themselves; 388, 9-95, p. 15.
Patriotic fervor; 389, 10-95, p. 28.
Transit woes; 389, 10-95, p. 28.
The road to an early death; 389, 10-95, p. 29.
The Sí a la Vida Project: A way back into society; 389, 10-95, p. 14.
Nicaraguans attacked in Honduras; 390, 11-95, p. 11.
Alessio Casimirri: Life on the run; 390, 11-95, p. 19.
Alarming increase in suicides: Saying goodbye to life; 390, 11-95, p. 22.
Biblical deluge; 390, 11-95, p. 25.
A whale of a meal; 390, 11-95, p. 25.
Cerro Negro volcano up to its old tricks: Spectacular tragedy; 391, 12-95, p. 18.
New heroes; 391, 12-95, p. 22.
Dreaming the eternal dream; 391, 12-95, p. 26.

■ Spotlight

Lumberto Campbell: On unfamiliar territory; 381, 1-95, p. 32.
Ada Luz Monterrey: Between love and hate; 382, 2-95, p. 32.
ANDEN leaders: Better salaries; 383, 3-95, p. 32.
Antonio Lacayo: I could go to Alaska; 384, 5-95, p. 32.
Daniel Ortega: FSLN, resolving people's problems; 385, 6-95, p. 32.
Donatila Jirón: We're here to stay; 386, 7-95, p. 40.
José Francisco Gutiérrez: A militant millionaire; 387, 8-95, p. 32.
Gixa Torres: We make men be machista; 388, 9-95, p. 32.
Zoilamérica Ortega: Seeing both sides; 389, 10-95, p. 40.
Vice president Julia Mena: A child with only one dress; 390, 11-95, p. 32.
Valentín Castillo: Serious acting for laughter and thought; 391, 12-95, p. 32.

■ Solidarity

Solentiname Development Association: An imperfect paradise; 381, 1-95, p. 25.
Canadian Christian brigadistas: From "One World" to another; 382, 2-95, p. 25.
Call to attend Latin American and Caribbean encounter; 386, 7-95, p. 8.
Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People; 388, 9-95, p. 17.
The need for unity; 388, 9-95, p. 18. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
With the FSLN national directorate: Close encounters; 388, 9-95, p. 19. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
Gilberto López, from Costa Rica's Sovereignty Group: Warning the continent; 388, 9-95, p. 21. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
José Arturo Luna, Chiapas Democratic Assembly: Finding positive answers and explanations; 388, 9-95, p. 22. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
The Managua Declaration; 388, 9-95, p. 23. Fifth Encounter of the American and Caribbean People.
The Sí a la Vida project: A way back into society; 389, 10-95, p. 14.
Campesinos from Cerro Colorado: Seeds of the future; 390, 11-95, p. 15.
Alessio Casimirri: Life on the run; 390, 11-95, p. 19.
Cuba donates rat poison; 391, 12-95, p. 11.

■ Women/Gender issues

Journalist accuses editor of sexual harassment; 381, 1-95, p. 11.
Health centers abortion probe; 382, 2-95, p. 11.
Pregnant adolescents: Growing up too fast; 382, 2-95, p. 15.
Liberty of sexual harassment; 382, 2-95, p. 29.
Wasiala campesina women seek protection; 383, 3-95, p. 10.
No more AID funds for Ixchen; 383, 3-95, p. 11.
The Nicaraguan feminist movement: Divided forces; 383, 3-95, p. 17.
National Feminist Committee breaks up: The shadow of the patriarchy; 383, 3-95, p. 18.
Building a Nicaraguan feminist movement: A process to learn from; 383, 3-95, p. 19.
Learn from what happened. By Patricia Orozco; 383, 3-95, p. 22. On the Nicaraguan feminist movement.
We lacked tolerance. By Bertha Inés Cabrales; 383, 3-95, p. 23. On the Nicaraguan feminist movement.
Activists and intellectuals. By Evelyn Novoa; 383, 3-95, p. 24. On the Nicaraguan feminist movement.
No blueprints. By Amanda Centeno; 383, 3-95, p. 24. On the Nicaraguan feminist movement.
New training options for women: Not for men only; 386, 7-95, p. 14.
Women in Malpaisillo: The thorny path to equality; 386, 7-95, p. 17.
Democracy without privileges: A new way of doing politics; 386, 7-95, p. 18.
Training programs for midwives: Helping give birth to the future; 386, 7-95, p. 19.
'I've stopped being a fool.' Testimony from Socorro Chávez Turcios; 386, 7-95, p. 21.
Young women in Malpaisillo: The right to their own lives; 386, 7-95, p. 22.
Sowing the seeds of hope; 386, 7-95, p. 23.
Police action against rapists: Into their own hands; 386, 7-95, p. 25.
Bound for Beijing: With ideas of their own; 388, 9-95, p. 12.
Confronting a "eucalyptic" problem: Opening up the second front; 389, 10-95, p. 25. Men's group against violence.
First rural Women's Police Station: The Mulukuku policewomen; 390, 11-95, p. 17.